Staffordshire Library and Arts Service are looking to recruit the next Young Poet Laureate; the current position holder is Isobel Horsley from Lichfield and she has enjoyed her 1 year tenure very much as you can see from her quote below:

'Being Young Poet Laureate has been an unforgettable journey, it was incredible to experience and immerse myself in what the literary world of being a poet is like, and I would gladly do it again. I've met so many inspirational and enthusiastic people including John Lancaster and my mentor Bert Flitcroft, the Staffordshire Poet Laureate, who have helped develop my poetry, further fuelling and encouraging my creativity enabling me to learn useful transferable life skills. The team involved in the Young Poet Laureate Scheme were very supportive, really helping me to achieve goals I never thought I'd have opportunity or confidence to do such as sharing my poetry with large audiences in venues across Staffordshire, the highlight being invited to perform my poetry at the Stoke on Trent Literary Festival. I would urge anyone with an interest in writing and performing poetry to step forward and apply without hesitation'

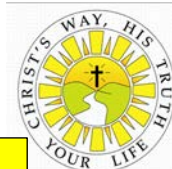

Please follow the link below which will provide you with the necessary details.
