‘Because grandparents care too’

Afraid? Anxious? Alone? Confused?

If you are the Grandparent of a child who has special needs/disability, then you will no doubt have felt at least one of the above at some point.

It can be hard discussing this with the parents of your Grandchild, you may feel that they already have enough on their plate.

Your friends may not always understand your concerns, especially at a time when all focus is on the parents.

How can SNUG help?

SNUG was formed by a Grandparent of a child with special needs to allow other grandparents in similar positions to be able to raise their concerns.

The group provides a platform for help and advice and for sharing both the good times and the bad.

The group is currently in two parts:

1. Facebook Group

The Facebook Group allows special needs Grandparents worldwide to be able to connect with one another.

2. Stafford Group

The Stafford Group is for members who live in and around Stafford (Staffordshire UK) who meet up during term time for tea/coffee and a chat. Sometimes we have informative talks from professionals or organisations. As the group grows it is hoped that more local groups across the country can be organised by members.

Would you like to see a local group in your area?

If you are interested in organising a SNUG meeting in your local area then please contact Anne who would be happy to help or advise.

Spread the word...

Help us reach as many grandparents of special needs grandchildren as possible by talking about this group and passing on our contact details.
